Cooperative Activities

Get together in pairs and identify the verbs in the two paragraphs below from The Free Radio and conjugate them from the past tense to present tense. For example; I knew= I know

I knew those cronies of his. They all wore the armbands of the new Youth Movement. This was the time of the State of Emergency, and these friends were not peaceful persons, there were stories of beating-up, so I sat quietly under my tree. Ramani wore no armband but he went with them because they impressed him, the fool.

He did not come for one day, then for two, and I learned afterwards that he had not wished to seem greedy; he didn't want the health officer to think he was desperate for the radio. Besides, he was half hoping they would come over and give it to him at his place, perhaps with some kind of small, formal presentation ceremony. A fool is a fool and there is no accounting for his notions.
