

Find someone who....

Instructions:

Walk around the classroom with a hard copy of this worksheet and find different classmates who can answer each item. On the blank lines, write the names of the classmates you find who can give a correct answer. If you ask someone who cannot answer, you have to find a new classmate to ask. Only write down the names of classmates who know the answer.

Remember to bring a pen for writing when you walk around.

Find someone who.....

- 1)can tell you what point of view is _____
- 2)can tell you the plot in the short story "Graveyard Shift" _____
- 3)can tell you the difference between explicit and implicit _____
- 4)can tell you why the woman in "Blood" came to the pet shop _____
- 5)can tell you what movie that was displayed in the cinema when the gunman entered in the article from NYTimes _____
- 6)can tell you the nationality of A. Munro (the author of "Gravel") _____
- 7)can explain what suspense is _____
- 8)can present the difference between connotation and denotation _____
- 9)can tell you what happened to Gul Meena _____
- 10)....can tell you what The Second Amendment is _____
- 11) ...can tell you what the term 'target audience' means _____
- 12)can tell you what angle/slant means _____
- 13)can name three different types of narrators in fictional stories _____
- 14)can explain to you what a simile is _____
- 15)can tell you what characterised the language in the article "How My Brother Tried to Kill Me in Honour Attack" _____
- 16)can translate 'analysis' and 'interpretation' _____
- 17)can tell you what characterises a newspaper article _____
- 18)....can tell you what makes a text fiction instead of non-fiction _____
- 19)can mention three of the keywords you wrote earlier in a shared online document, regarding the topic Twisted Minds _____